WPATH Policy for Disclosures of Interests and Management of Conflicts Standards of Care 8

The World Professional Association for Transgender Health (WPATH) develops the Standards of Care (SOC) for the health of Transsexual, Transgender and Gender Nonconforming People. Appointment to the SOC8 Committee as a Chair, Methodologist, Chapter Lead or Chapter Member is subject to approval of the WPATH Board.

Interests must be disclosed using the WPATH Disclosure Form. The Disclosure Form collects information about financial relationships with entities with direct interest in the SOC8 as well as any non-financial interests such as previously published opinions, institutional relationships, advocacy or policy positions, or specialty practice that may relate to the topics in SOC8.

Management of Conflicts of Interest

The WPATH Board reviews and assesses disclosure forms. Management of conflicts may include prohibiting membership in SOC8, open discussion with other chapter or SOC8 members, and/or recusal from decisions specific to disclosed interests.

Completed and signed forms should be submitted for review of the WPATH Board to [REDACTED]
Please complete and sign by December 22, 2018.
