Of note: I briefly returned to twitter for 9 tweets (archive: threadreaderapp.com/thread/18982...) because that's where Maia Abbruzzese ("Maia Poet") - a falsified pseudo-'detransitioner' and undisclosed daughter of anti-trans group SEGM's cofounder Zhenya Abbruzzese - was threatening the community:

This commentary by me was in realtime as I entered the space partway through as Maia Abbruzzese was engaged in mid-unhinged rant, and we're currently working on obtaining a recording of the full length of their spaces call

For context, as we've all been settling in over here, apparently on twitter the worst of the worst have been entrenching, and one of the worst who's risen in influence is "Maia Poet", just through sheer prolific hostile anti-trans posting, using the r-word, and other abominable behavior

"Maia Poet" never transitioned medically, but grifts on the alleged body horrors of transitioning and her supposed "detransition" anyway. She wears a bland bowtie with no overall composition in her outfits, and looks for all the world like the ventriloquist dummy Slappy from R.L. Stine's Goosebumps

So, when our associate Julie Rei discovered an article about a "Maia Abbruzzese" in Portland, Oregon - where Zhenya Abbruzzese lives - and the article had a photo that looks just like Maia Poet... and the article had a comment from "Zhenya" about how proud she is... cardinaltimes.org/11115/showca...

How many Zhenyas who would be proud of an Abbruzzese - highly likely an immediate family member, so likely a comment from a Zhenya Abbruzzese - are there in Portland, Oregon?

How many people named Maia look exactly like the same person with the same face?

And based on the clear facial match, given we can conclude "Maia Poet" is really a slam poet in Portland named Maia Abbruzzese: how many Abbruzzeses in Portland, Oregon are intensively involved with anti-trans activism as a core of their present career and daily activities?

1. Zhenya
2. Maia

And we know there's at least one Zhenya in the orbit of anti-trans activist Maia Abbruzzese's life.

Who could that Zhenya be?

Maia Abbruzzese states she was born in 1999. This would be compatible with Zhenya

Zinnia Jones   @zinniajones.com · 5h

But then, a Medium post by Zhenya Abbruzzese, the known SEGM cofounder, in June 2017 - at which time Maia would have been around 18 - says: "Over the same 4 years, my daughter started and is now finishing high school". And: "19 years ago ... our daughter was born 9 months later". archive.ph/5wBLR

I think this, taken together, is sufficient to conclude Maia Poet/Maia Abbruzzese is anti-trans activist Zhenya Abbruzzese's undisclosed anti-trans activist daughter.

Maia's statement in the space above early this morning 2025-03-08, that "the fact that it took them [us as trans researchers] this long [to make this identifying connection] is totally on them", can be taken as confirmation freely offered by Maia Abbruzzese that she is Zhenya Abbruzzese's daughter.

Again, Julie Rei Goldstein is the one who gets to take credit for discovering their connection, I did not discover that, I just like to reshare and promote these things when they come up because it is important and we are all part of one big collective community siphonophore together 🐙

In all this I was wondering, what kind of slam poetry might we expect to hear out of Maia "Poet" Abbruzzese? So I looked, and as of a few hours ago: anti-Black racism and the defense of white people wearing "dreadlocks" (tw: racism) archive.ph/OWN6h

Instead she chooses to characterize dreadlocks as something that was ever available to her as a real option, but which is being capriciously gatekept from her by nefarious forces, and so she therefore feels warranted in tweeting something offensive about black people.

Does she really think adding matted hair as white-people-"dreads" is going to improve the Slappy situation?

I just hate these people. I try to keep it decent but the both of them are just genuinely horrible. I'm the one who found out SEGM frequent coauthor "E. Abbruzzese" was actually Evgenia Abbruzzese - and a common diminutive of Evgenia is Zhenya, leading us to her. threadreaderapp.com/thread/18977...

I'll happily take credit for that one. I'm the one who found Zhenya Abbruzzese's email address - leading us to place her in Portland, Oregon and link her to the SEGM website - in a court filing about a meeting she and other members had with Florida's Medicaid to ban coverage of transition treatment.

Zhenya Abbruzzese (and some SEGM members, but she is SEGM's cofounder) came to my state and successfully took away transition coverage from adults on Medicaid. Trans people I know lost access to HRT because of Zhenya Abbruzzese and her work with the DeSantis administration and the Florida AHCA.

That's so obscene. People I know, people who had been on HRT for years because Florida Medicaid had been covering it for years, were detransitioned because of that fixed illusion
